Notes to Financial Statements June 30, 2003

Note 1 – Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

Progressive Asset Management, Inc. (Company) incorporated in California on July 14, 1987 and registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Through May 1999, the Company was a full-service investment firm specializing in socially responsible investing. As more fully discussed in Note 12, the Company transferred all customer accounts and relationships with client representatives to another broker-dealer. The Company remains registered as a broker-dealer, continues to provide research and referrals in consideration for commission-based fees and recruits brokers for FWG (Note 12). Transferred and recruited brokers committed to socially responsible investing form the Progressive Asset Management Network.

In its policies, practices and programs, the Company commits to provide its clients with the highest quality financial products and investment services and to operate as a strong, positive force for social justice and environmental protection. The headquarters of the Company is in Oakland, California.

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of the Company and exclude the accounts of its 46% (2002 - 70%) -owned subsidiary, ProgressiveTrade Securities, Inc. (doing business as Aquillian Investment Technologies), a start-up enterprise incorporated on November 1, 2000 and that had no significant activity during the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002. The Company invested $100,000 in ProgressiveTrade Securities, Inc. on March 31, 2002 (Note 6).

The Company claims exemption from Securities Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 because it does not carry customer funds or handle customer securities.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and demand deposits held by commercial banks and money market funds held by registered investment companies. All cash and cash equivalents are available to the Company within 90 days of demand. The carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.

Investment securities and other investments

The Company classifies investments in marketable securities as investment securities and records them at their fair market value. The Company classifies investments without a ready market as other investments and records them at the lower of cost or estimated net realizable value.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment consists of furniture and office and computer equipment. The Company computes depreciation of property and equipment using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective property and equipment, ranging from three to seven years.

Investment in unconsolidated subsidiary

The Company records its investment in unconsolidated subsidiary (Note 6) at cost.

Security transactions and commissions

The Company records net commission revenue from FWG (Note 12) and on its limited security transactions on a settlement-date basis. Net commission revenue on unsettled transactions at year-end is not material.

Advertising costs

The Company expenses costs for producing and communicating advertising when incurred.

Income taxes

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that are included in financial statements and tax returns in different periods. Under this method, the Company determines deferred tax assets and liabilities based on the difference between financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the years when the Company estimates the differences to reverse. As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, there were no significant deferred tax assets or liabilities except for a deferred tax asset (net of a 100% valuation allowance) resulting from available income tax loss carryforwards (Note 7).

Earnings per share

The Company calculates basic earnings per share based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. The Company calculates fully diluted earnings per share based on the weighted average number of common shares and common stock equivalents, including options and convertible preferred stock, outstanding during the year.

Estimated fair value of financial instruments

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 107, "Disclosure about Fair Value of Financial Instruments," requires the disclosure of the fair value of financial instruments, including assets and liabilities recognized on the statement of financial condition. Management estimates that the aggregate net fair value of financial instruments recognized on the statement of financial condition (including receivables, payables and accrued expenses) approximates their carrying value, as such financial instruments are short-term in nature, bear interest at current market rates or are stated at their fair value.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principle generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported herein. Although management of the Company bases the estimates on its knowledge of current events and actions it may undertake in the future, actual results may differ.

Note 2 – Earth Trade settlement

Earth Trade, Inc. (Earth Trade) organized in 1992 to promote sustainable development by marketing both organic and conventional food products from farm cooperatives in the developing world. In prior years, the Company acted as a sales agent in connection with the placement of certain Earth Trade debt and equity securities.

Principally due to continuing losses, the shareholders of Earth Trade voted in May 1997 to voluntarily dissolve and liquidate its net assets. In April 1997, the Company Board of Directors, with consideration of its mission and standards of social responsibility, its 30% ownership of Earth Trade and its role as placement agent for debt and equity securities issued by Earth Trade, offered a settlement agreement to the Earth Trade note holders. Under the agreement, in exchange for their residual Earth Trade debt and a general release of liability, the note holders could receive either Company Series A preferred stock (Note 8) with a stated value of $7.00 (fair market value on settlement date of $0.70) or Company common stock with a stated value of $5.00 (fair market value on settlement date of $0.50). Substantially all the Earth Trade note holders accepted the settlement agreement in January 1998.

During the years ended June 30, 1999 and 1998, the Company issued stock and cash to close the settlement agreement, as follows:

	Shares	Amount
Preferred, Series A	94,879	$ 66,416
Common	91,852	45,925
Cash	· —	27,022
Total		$139,363

In February 1999, the shareholders approved an additional settlement with certain remaining Earth Trade note holders. Under the agreement, in exchange for their residual Earth Trade debt, a general release of liability and a subordination agreement acceptable to the NASD, the note holders received a total of $380,000. A reconciliation of the additional settlement subordinated liability and current payments follow.

As of and during the year ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Earth Trade settlement subordinated liability and current payments totaled as follows:

Additional settlement Total payments through June 30, 2001	$380,000 301,926
Earth Trade settlement subordinated liability as of June 30, 2001 Paid by the Company on September 25, 2001	78,074 44,225
Earth Trade settlement subordinated liability as of June 30, 2002 Paid by the Company on September 23, 2002	33,849 33,849
Earth Trade settlement subordinated liability as of June 30, 2003	$

Before the settlement agreements, the Company owed nothing to Earth Trade or its share- or note holders. Accordingly, the Company did not consider the settlement agreement a debt extinguishment. However, due to the mandatory redemption feature of the Series A preferred stock (Note 8) issued as part of the first Earth Trade settlement agreement, management does not classify it with stockholders' equity.

Note 3 – Investment securities

As of June 30, 2003, investment securities consisted of a bank certificate of deposit bearing fixed interest at 1.24% and maturing May 4, 2004.

As of June 30, 2002, the Company held no investment securities. On July 16, 2001, the Company redeemed its matured zero coupon bonds for $14,000. On August 30, 2001, the Company redeemed its matured bank certificate of deposit for $95,000 plus accrued interest.

As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company had carryforwards of unused tax credits related to low-income housing of approximately $78,000 and $75,000, respectively, from several partnerships in which the Company has invested or received participating interests.

Under certain 1986 Tax Reform Act provisions, the availability of the net operating loss carryforwards is subject to limitation upon a change in ownership of more than 50% of the stock of the Company.

The income tax provision for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002 consists of minimum state franchise taxes, increased by suspension of the use of net operating loss carryforwards during the year ended June 30, 2003.

Notes to Financial Statements June 30, 2003

Note 8 – Series A preferred stock

The Series A preferred stock issued during the years ended June 30, 1999 and 1998, in connection with the Earth Trade settlement (Note 2), does not pay dividends, is non-voting, has a $7.00 per share liquidation preference over the common and Series B preferred stock and is convertible 1:1 into shares of common stock at the option of the holder or automatically upon the occurrence of certain events. The Series A preferred stock is subject to mandatory redemption annually each November 1 at $7.00 per share.

The Company will redeem a portion of the Series A preferred stock based on 1% of its gross revenues, as adjusted, and limited by the ability of the Company to meet the NASD net capital requirements (Note 16). The liquidation preference and remaining redemption requirement of the Series A preferred stock as of June 30, 2003 and 2002 totaled $462,882 and $506,466, respectively. The Company records the Series A preferred stock herein at its value when the Company issued it (Note 2) and excludes it from stockholders' equity.

Note 9 – Series B preferred stock

The Company, as part of a May 1999 agreement and amended November 1, 2001, with Paradox Holdings, Inc., parent of FWG (Note 12), agreed to sell a 40% ownership interest in the Company; represented by Series B preferred stock, for $25,000. Following approval by the NASD in June 1999, the Company received payment and issued 25,000 shares of Series B preferred stock in July 1999.

The Series B preferred stock is entitled to 40% of the total dividends declared on common stock, is entitled to vote as if converted to a 40% share of the common stock, has a $1.00 per share liquidation preference (plus declared but unpaid dividends) over the common stock and is convertible into shares of common stock equal to 40% of the common stock after conversion at the option of the holder or automatically after the sooner of the Company receiving $875,000 under the agreement (Note 12) or January 1, 2004.

Note 11 – Common stock options

In December 1995, the Company adopted a stock option and incentive plan that allows for the issuance of up to 200,000 shares of common stock. The plan provides for the award of stock options, employee stock purchases and restricted stock grants. Of the options awarded, all vest immediately and must be held for up to two years before exercise. Options awarded before December 1995 had holding requirements of up to seven years.

The Company Board of Directors determines awards of additional stock options, vesting, exercise prices and other option terms. The exercise prices for all options awarded have not been less than the fair market value of the stock as determined by the Board of Directors at the date of grant. Certain options require a 10% premium on the option price under certain circumstances. Outstanding options as of June 30, 2003 and 2002 expire from December 31, 2003 through 2008 and reconcile as follows:

The Company, with consideration of its mission and standards of social responsibility, desires to expense its stock options. However, the value of its outstanding stock options as of June 30, 2003 was immaterial. Consequently, the Company records its stock-based awards using the intrinsic value method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Principles Board No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" and its related interpretations. Accordingly, the Company recognized no compensation expense in the accompanying financial statements. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123)," requires the disclosure of pro forma net income had the Company adopted the fair value method of accounting. Under SFAS 123, the fair value of stock-based awards to employees is calculated through the use of option pricing models, even though such models were developed to estimate the fair value of freely tradable, fully transferable options without vesting restrictions, which significantly differs from the stock-based awards of the Company. These models also require subjective assumptions, including future stock price volatility and expected time to exercise, which significantly affect the calculated values.

Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission

June 30, 2003

A supplementary report pursuant to Rule 17a-5(d)(4) and the information relating to possession or control requirements under Rule 15c3-3 are not required under Rule 17a-5(e)(1)(i)(A) and Rule 15c3-3(k), respectively.

Report of Independent Auditors on Internal Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

Board of Directors Progressive Asset Management, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Progressive Asset Management, Inc. (Company) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2003, we considered internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in the following:

1. Making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3(e).

Because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in the following:

- 1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, comparisons and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
- 2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.
- 3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the second paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control and of the practices and procedures referred to in the second paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the above-mentioned objectives of the SEC. Two of the objectives of internal control and practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with the authorization of management and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the second paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and practices and procedures, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. In addition, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of a specific internal control component does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control that we consider material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the applicable practices and procedures of the Company were adequate, as of June 30, 2003, to meet the objectives of the SEC.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors and management of the Company, the National Association of Securities Dealers, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
